Conditions of entry	RULES & REGULATIONS • Competitors must be 15 and under 25 years of age on 1st May in the year of the State Final at the Royal Easter Show. They must be living in NSW or be in regular paid employment there or be in full time education in NSW at the time of first competing in any competition year. • Once a competitor has qualified to represent a Group at Sydney Royal Show in any one of the Judging or Parading Competition State Finals, they may not enter another Group Final as a potential qualifier in that type of competition in that competition year. They can, however, enter any one or more Group Finals anywhere in the state, for practice (and score), in the same type of competition as one in which they have previously qualified as long as they disclose this to the Group Final organisers at the time of entry and indicate that they are not eligible for a placing in that event. o (“qualified” means First in Merino Sheep, First or Second in Meat Breeds Sheep, Merino Fleece, Beef Cattle and Grain, and First, Second or Third in Dairy Cattle and Fruit and Vegetables. In Beef Cattle Paraders, “qualified” means gaining one of the placings which the particular Group Final is entitled to award based on the scale of entries. The Stud Merino Breeders Association competitions in Merino Sheep Judging at Armidale, Canberra and Dubbo are classed as Group Finals.) • No competitor can represent more than one Show Society in any one Group Final and no more than one group in a State Final. The winners of National Finals cannot compete thereafter at any level in the particular competition that they won. • Winners of two (2) State Finals in any one class shall not be eligible for future competitions in that class. • The Hormel Slide or the Computerised Scoring System is to be used at all Group and State Finals. • Groups are entitled to be represented at State level by two (2) Competitors unless otherwise stated. • Group Secretaries must inform AgShows of the name, date of birth, address and telephone number of any competitor in judging competitions going on to State Finals. AgShows NSW will advise these Competitors of the venue and times of the State Final. In addition, a complete list of all Competitors in a Group Final must be sent to AgShows NSW the next working day after the competition. • After the competition is over and awards have been given, the Competitors can look at their scores on the master sheet only. • Competitors will be eliminated from the competition if deemed by the Chief Steward to be receiving outside assistance.
